

The prohibitions against media companies owning too many newspapers, TV stations, and radio stations are already too weak.

To give corporations more power to increase and concentrate their holdings will damage the very principles that our Democracy depends on for an informed citizenry. Please abandon your slavish obeisance to corporate control of the USA.